

FALL MASS AND BARBECUE

Sunday, September 20, 2009, 4:00 PM

Targeted Volunteers: Senior Parents & 8th Grade Parents

This committee is responsible for the planning, organizing, set up, staffing, cooking and clean up for the Fall Family Mass and Barbecue celebration. It is a great way to kick off the academic year and connect or reconnect with other UA families. The event begins with a mass followed by a cookout on the back lawn. Students, parents, siblings and grandparents are most welcome.

7TH GRADE POT LUCK SUPPER

Wednesday, October 7, 2009, 6:00 PM

Targeted Volunteers: Sophomore Parents

The 7th Grade Pot Luck Supper is an opportunity for students, their parents and siblings to meet their daughters'/sisters' friends and families while enjoying a pot luck supper that is provided by the 7th grade families. Members of the UA administration will speak during dinner. After dinner, parents will go to their daughters' classes, meet teachers and receive a brief overview of each subject. Sophomore parents are asked to help with this event because their daughters are the big sisters to the 7th grade students. Volunteers will be asked to set up the tea room, heat meals, serve meals and clean up after dinner.

8TH GRADE POT LUCK SUPPER

Tuesday, October 20, 2009, 6:00 PM

Targeted Volunteers: Junior Parents

The 8th Grade Pot Luck Supper is an opportunity for students, their parents and siblings to meet their daughters'/sisters' friends and families while enjoying a pot luck supper that is supplied by the 8th grade families. Members of the UA administration will speak during dinner. After dinner, parents will go to their daughters' classes, meet teachers and receive a brief overview of each subject. Junior parents are asked to help with this event because their daughters are the big sisters to the 8th grade students. Volunteers will be asked to set up the tea room, heat meals, serve meals and clean up after dinner.

OPEN HOUSE

Sunday, October 25, 2009, 1:00 PM

Volunteers: All Parents

This event is held for prospective students and their families to visit Ursuline Academy. Volunteers act as ambassadors on behalf of the school by welcoming guests, answering questions, serving refreshments etc.

BRESCIA BALL

Saturday, November 21, 2009, 6:30 PM, Luciano's Lake Pearl, Wrentham, MA

Volunteers: All Parents

This gala celebrates Ursuline Academy's mission of service by honoring individuals within the UA community who exemplify Serviam in their daily lives. In addition to honoring these special people, this event also serves as a silent and live auction. The proceeds of this event are designated to a specific, identified need within Academy. Volunteers for this event are responsible for all aspects of this event including the decorations, solicitation of auction items and sponsorships, honoring the honorees and other event logistics such as advertising, invitations, program booklet, and ticket sales. They also attend planning meetings.

CHRISTMAS GATHERING

Targeted Volunteers: Freshman Parents and 7th Grade Parents

Sunday, December 6, 2009 4:00 PM

Get into the spirit of Christmas and celebrate the achievements of students who participate in arts at Ursuline Academy. Volunteers for this event are responsible for decorating the gym, obtaining/displaying refreshments and the arrangement of a few raffle baskets.

TEACHER/STAFF APPRECIATION

Volunteers: All Parents

Monday, January 25, 2010 (No school)

Show UA teachers and staff how much you appreciate them by preparing and serving a luncheon in their honor. The luncheon will take place on the day of the faculty retreat.

SPAGHETTI SUPPER

Targeted Volunteers: All Ursuline Dads

Tentative Date: January 30, 2010

This event is inexpensive and fun for students, parents, siblings and grandparents! Cure the winter doldrums by joining other UA families for great food and entertainment. Volunteers are responsible for decorating the Tea Room, preparing and serving the food and clean up.

"SPRING INTO FASHION" FASHION SHOW

Volunteers: All Parents

Tentative Date: Sunday, February 28, 2010

This is a fun event for all UA students. All students are welcome to participate but only high school students are allowed to be models. 7th and 8th grade students may help with various tasks: greeters, runners, coat room workers hair, makeup and wardrobe workers etc. Volunteers for this event help with the weekly practices (approximately 6 to 8 practices), recruit, pick up and drop off the various wardrobes, create/order centerpieces, organize narratives about each model, escort and garment, chaperone the fittings etc. Additionally, volunteers attend planning meetings.

SENIOR PARENT BRUNCH

Targeted Volunteers: Junior Parents

Sunday, May 2, 2010 10:00 Am

This is a special event, hosted by Junior Parents, which serves as a transition from student to alumna. It is for all members of the graduating class and their parents. The graduating senior and her parents are invited to the Tea Room for a brunch and other surprises. Additionally, an Ursuline alumna is the guest speaker.

18TH ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

Monday, June 14, 2010

Volunteers: All Parents

This golf tournament is typically held in June each year. The proceeds from this event are used to assist the Athletic Program at UA. Parent volunteers plan and organize this event, secure players, sponsors, and auction/raffle items. Volunteers attend monthly golf meetings in order to plan this important fundraiser.

CLASS AGENT

Volunteers: All Parents

Ideally, there will be a class agent assigned for each homeroom. Class agents are responsible for making phone calls to parents --informing or reminding them of events, fundraisers, activities etc.

OFFICE HELP

Volunteers: All Parents

Throughout the school year the Advancement Office and other school offices need help with mailings. Volunteers will be contacted when extra help is needed.

ANNUAL FUND AND PHONATHONS

Volunteers: All Parents

Each year parents work in partnership with the school and Advancement team on the Ursuline Academy Annual Fund. The Annual Fund is a critical source of revenue for the school. Parent volunteers are involved with phone-a-thons to encourage all constituencies namely parents, alumnae parents, alumnae and friends to support the Academy.
