THE COMMISSIONING AND BLESSING OF
KATHLEEN NOLAN
LEVESQUE '77,

February 2019

Dear Friends of Ursuline,

Do you ever think about the cumulative impact of your actions? Not your larger actions, done with great forethought and intention, but the myriad of smaller ones that happen each day—the kind word to the cashier at the local store, the friendly wave to let a fellow motorist cut in front of you, the smile that you may flash without ever knowing that it truly makes someone's day?

My years of Latin as a student at Ursuline sent me scurrying to look up the origins of the word 'impact.' From the Latin impactus, meaning "to push into," our actions push into the lives of others. It is the actions—and the impact—of so many donors that we celebrate in our 2017–18 Annual Report of Gifts, contained here within Serviam Magazine.

Each of these actions—whether the gift of time, talent, or hard-earned treasure—has an undeniable and indelible impact on Ursuline. The choice you make to be generous of spirit shapes the extent of our program, the direction of our school's future, and the lives of the young women we educate. Inside, you will read about Ursuline's new mission statement, which reminds us to inspire our students to "engage in their communities with purpose and presence"—to have an impact on their world. Your choice to be generous enables us to live up to that mission, and for that, I most earnestly thank you. We would not have Ursuline without all of you.

One of Ursuline's most impactful donors passed away on November 1, 2018. Parent, grandparent, board chair, trusted advisor, quiet philanthropist, and dear friend, David W. C. Putnam pushed into Ursuline with kindness, wisdom, humility, and care. His unwavering love of Ursuline and gratitude to the Ursuline Sisters for educating his daughters fueled his actions, the impact of which is clearly evident in today's Ursuline. It was David's quiet belief in my ability to lead Ursuline that first helped convince me to become Ursuline's president in 2004, and his steadfast encouragement that urged me to return to this role in 2018. Ursuline—and I—are deeply blessed to have had David's impact on our lives. We are forever enriched by it, and overwhelmingly grateful for it. (A tribute to David Putnam may be found on page 13.)

To all of you who impact Ursuline with your essential support of our mission, I offer our deepest thanks and prayers of gratitude. By pushing into Ursuline, you have shaped the lives of countless young women who, in turn, can impact the world in which we live.

With a grateful heart,

WHAT IS URSULINE CALLED TO BE?

Kate Levesque calls for Ursuline to become its best self at her formal commissioning Invoking Thomas Merton's idea that life is a journey toward becoming the most authentic version of oneself, Kathleen Nolan Levesque '77 formally accepted the call to serve as the next president of Ursuline Academy at a Commissioning Mass on December 7. In her remarks, she embraced a commitment to help Ursuline and its current and future students be their true selves and to bring her own true self to the task at hand. Levesque was selected by the board of trustees in January 2018 to succeed Rosann Whiting, who retired from the Academy in June.

The extended Ursuline community plus a host of invited guests gathered in The Reynolds Family Athletic & Convocation Center for a ceremony that commissioned and blessed Levesque in her new role. It was a day filled with joy, music, and celebration for those in attendance, including the entire student body, faculty, staff, alumnae, parents, board members, former Serviam award recipients, heads of other secondary schools, local politicians, and representatives of charitable and service organizations with which Ursuline partners. Massachusetts Senator Walter Timilty, Representatives Shawn Dooley, William Driscoll, and Paul McMurtry, Boston City Councilor-at-Large Anissa Essaibi-George, and Milton Selectmen Richard Wells attended to offer their congratulations and support.

The crowd of approximately 650 filled the Reynolds Center nearly to capacity, and the Ursuline Academy Choral Group and “Ursuline seeks to create lifelong learners, but ultimately, God calls us to be something more. A passion for knowledge is the beginning, but true spiritual fulfillment means taking this knowledge, adapting ourselves to it, and using what we’ve learned to put our faith out into the world ...

To our students, the young women who inspire me each day, I ask: Who is your true self? Who is it that God is calling you to be? You are each uniquely individual, imbued with infinite potential to bring change to our world. I will do all I can to ensure that Ursuline helps you to become your true self ...

And what is Ursuline called to be? We, the larger community of Ursuline—all of us—share the responsibility to help Ursuline become its true self. What type of school does God call us to be? The blessing so beautifully bestowed on our entire community today calls us collectively to carry out the mission of the Ursuline Sisters. Let us together listen, in the quiet of our hearts, to all that God calls us to be, as individuals and as a community.”

—Kate Levesque ’77

accompanists on piano, trumpet, violin, flute, and cajon filled it with song. Music Director and Fine Arts Chair Susan Glancy led off with a solo of the Gaelic Blessing, and “Ubi Caritas” and “Canticle of the Turning” followed, creating a mood of deep reverence and a spirit of hope for the future of the Academy. Sister Rita Bregenhorn, O.S.U., brought the imprimatur of the Ursuline Central Province, the governing body of Ursuline Academy. Rev. Paul Harman of the College of the Holy Cross, a college mentor of Levesque’s, performed the actual blessing. The Mass was celebrated by Rev. Richard Uftring, Chaplain of Our Lady of the Airways, as principal celebrant. Rev. Joseph Mozer of St. Mary Parish in Wrentham delivered the homily, and Rev. Brendan Darcy, S.M.A., and Rev. Michael Nolan, St.

Mary Parish in Waltham, concelebrated. The readings were given by Julianne Webster ’17 and Paul Nolan, Kate Levesque’s father.

The Academy’s new president is not only a graduate of the Class of 1977 but has also served as vice chair of the board of trustees, as the school’s first president from 2004–07, and as interim principal for the 2015–16 school year. Levesque brings a strong background in management and communications to the table, having worked as an executive in the financial and non-profit sectors prior to re-engaging with Ursuline as a board member in 2002.

When asked about her decision to return to Ursuline for another chapter, she doesn’t hesitate: “I’ve been associated with many fine institutions in my life and was blessed with a successful career. I have always known, though, that next to my parents, Ursuline Academy has formed me into who I am more than anything or anyone else. It was at Ursuline that I learned to think, to speak and write persuasively, and to put the ideal of service at the center of who I am.”

Asked what her priorities for her first year in the president’s seat are, Levesque says that she plans to spend time listening to people from all corners of the community—not just faculty and students, but also alumnae, parents, trustees, and heads of other Ursuline schools. “Returning to Ursuline in this role is such a remarkable opportunity for me. I’m using this year to deepen my understanding of the Ursuline of today and to begin to lay the foundation for our next strategic initiatives. We are so fortunate to have the commitment and active participation of our board, administrative team, and faculty as we prepare for Ursuline’s future.”

LIVING WITH FAITH, COURAGE, AND JOY:

Ursuline Academy introduces new mission statement

The culmination of 18 months of soul-searching, brainstorming, writing, revising, and fine-tuning, a new mission statement was introduced to the Ursuline Academy community at a Mass and assembly on October 22, 2018, the Feast of St. Ursula. The embodiment of what a school hopes to achieve for its students, a mission statement is the heart and soul of its outward-facing communications. The concepts and even the words of Ursuline's new mission statement are not radically new—the idea of fostering respect, compassion, intellectual curiosity, and a commitment to service will ring true to alumnae from any decade. However, the hope is that the new statement will provide a guidepost for all actions, plans, and communications over the next several years to ensure that they are true to the essence of Ursuline Academy.

Nearly two years ago, the effort to revise the mission statement began as the first step in a strategic planning process led by then-trustee Kate Levesque. Reflecting on those initial steps, Levesque says, “I realized that we needed to re-articulate our mission statement. I felt that the mission statement we had did not present a clear picture of the young women whom we are trying to cultivate at Ursuline. Having a strong mission statement is crucial to the foundation of a strategic plan that will carry on the vision and values of the Ursuline sisters.”

Levesque went about crafting the new mission statement using a bottom-up process that involved a broad cross-section of the Ursuline community. It began with the step of literally assigning homework to the teachers. All faculty and staff were asked to respond to essential questions about our approach to education, what we seek to develop in our students, what defines our community, and what it means to be Ursuline. Working in teams, the faculty and staff used sticky notes to group hundreds of responses into similar themes, and then set out to write a mission statement that incorporated those themes into a single statement. The result was nine versions of a possible new mission statement, which were then combined and refined by a smaller working team into a single first draft. Over the next year, this draft was reviewed and revised by the board of trustees and went back to the faculty and the working committee for some revision. The final version was approved by the board of trustees and the Ursuline Provincial of the Central Province in St. Louis in the spring of 2018.

When introduced at the assembly in October, peer ministers, each carrying a word or phrase of the statement, walked from their seats in the congregation to assemble before the community, at which time the student body and the faculty read the statement aloud in unison. After the Mass, each homeroom was given a sign bearing the mission statement to bring back to the classroom; the students, sharing some celebratory treats, undertook a writing activity prompting them to consider how “faith, courage, and joy” manifest themselves at Ursuline Academy.

“The very best mission statements are those that inform and inspire,” said Levesque. “To the outside world, it is our hope that this will offer a distinct understanding of what defines and distinguishes Ursuline. Each of us—whether student, teacher, staff member, or administrator—is called to treat one another with respect and compassion, and is reminded to be intellectually curious. We are all called to serve, and we are each inspired to live with faith, courage, and joy. I am so pleased that members of our entire community gave their input into the development of this new statement, since it is the foundation of the work that will take place over the next several years to bring Ursuline Academy to new heights.”

Our Mission

An independent Catholic school for young women in grades 7–12,
Ursuline Academy fosters respect, compassion, intellectual curiosity, and a commitment to service.
Inspired by the legacy of St. Angela Merici, our students grow to be women of integrity who engage in their communities with purpose and presence.
We live with faith, courage, and joy.

REUNION 2018 BRINGS ALUMNAE BACK HOME

September 22, 2018

From the floating balloons conjuring up an “under the sea” theme to the playlist of songs from past decades, Reunion 2018 stepped up the fun factor in a whole new way. With changes to the timing, location, and decor, Ursuline’s Reunion has taken on a new twist over the past few years, and this year was no exception. Reunion 2018, for the second year, was paired with Homecoming in September as a way to provide an opportunity for alumnae to see the campus and current students in action.

Continuing a recent tradition, the 50th reunion class was invited to a small reception to enjoy a champagne toast in celebration of its milestone anniversary. New this year, the celebration was held in the Alumnae Room of the new Reynolds Family Athletic & Convocation Center, which was also celebrating the anniversary of its opening in September 2017. The ladies of 1968 shared amazing memories of coming of age in a turbulent time in our country’s history when young women were only just beginning to have a voice. Said Lorraine Besse Cunningham ’68, “It was Ursuline that gave me the confidence to stand up and speak in a male-dominated setting when I was working in state government on domestic violence policy.”

Next, the group joined with the Homecoming contingent for a joyful Mass in the Reynolds Center gymnasium. The evening then moved just down the hill, to the gym of the 85 Lowder building, where each of the reunion classes had plenty of room to claim a little real estate as its own. Adorned to the rafters with blue and green balloons, the room was hardly recognizable as the gym where many had played basketball or performed in a play. For two hours, the years fell away and the ladies from every decade laughed like teenagers.

Kate Levesque ’77, Ursuline’s new president, welcomed the attendees, saying, “The world needs Ursuline women, and Ursuline needs you. We welcome you back with open arms, and ask you to tell your friends and neighbors what Ursuline has meant to you; we need your prayers, and we need your philanthropy. Please return and visit us often.”

The alumnae relations team continues to re-evaluate Reunion in hopes that even more alumnae will take the opportunity to return to campus. If you have ideas, or would like to become a class agent, please email alumnae@ursulineacademy.net.

DENIM AND DIAMONDS DOESN'T DISAPPOINT

For the first time in its twelve-year history, the 2018 Brescia Ball was held on the Ursuline campus in the recently opened Reynolds Family Athletic & Convocation Center. The theme of Denim and Diamonds lent itself to a more casual yet elegant atmosphere than past Brescia Balls, and placed the spotlight squarely on Ursuline students, who sparkled as they provided vocal entertainment for the guests. It is their educational experience that will benefit from the proceeds earned.

Guests enjoyed signature cocktails on the track overlooking the gym floor, which had been transformed into a country-style cafe with a bluegrass band and casual seating. Food stations offering fish tacos, braised short ribs, and smoked turkey ensured there was something to please every palate. Parents, alumnae, faculty, staff, and friends were unanimous that the set up contributed to a more fun and festive atmosphere than a traditional sit-down dinner.

A special thank-you for their hard work goes to the committee members—Julie Steinkrauss, Kitty McDonald, Elizabeth King, Tracey Finch, and Sandra Giordano—as well as all of our sponsors, auction item donors, and volunteers.

MEET CHIEF ADVANCEMENT OFFICER JOSEPH ZISKA

Joseph Ziska joined the Ursuline Academy leadership team as Chief Advancement Officer in December of 2018. He comes to us from The New England Center for Children, where he served as Director of Development, leading the major gifts program and coordinating two capital campaigns that raised nearly $20 million during his 13-year tenure at the center. In his role at Ursuline, Ziska will oversee Ursuline's advancement, communications, and marketing efforts.

With over 20 years' experience in the field of development, Ziska has proven himself to be a strategic thinker and adept at developing strong relationships among diverse constituencies. As the husband of Carolyn Thorne '90, son-in-law of Margaret Lannon Thorne '63, and father of Katherine '22, Ziska knows well the mission of Ursuline and has already forged strong ties within the community.

Ziska will be proactively reaching out to members of the alumnae and parent communities over the next several months as he begins to set priorities. He also looks forward to hearing from you and may be reached at (781) 493-7711 or at jziska@ursulineacademy.net.

Sister Martin (Lucille Therese) Drouin

Martin (Lucille Therese) Drouin, O.S.U., passed to eternal life on December 28, 2018 at the age of 93. A resident of Ursuline communities in Maine and Massachusetts for many years, Sister Martin was known for her prayerful presence over the Dedham campus and its inhabitants. According to Principal Mary-Kate Tracy-Robidoux '94, "Sr. Martin would spend many hours in prayer each day and had a list of Ursuline family members and friends that she would pray for by name, unfailingly. Sr. Martin also possessed a keen memory, so once she knew that someone was ill or struggling, she would ask for a status update every time she saw you thereafter ... It was as if she were tracking God's workings in our lives as a community of faith at Ursuline."

David Putnam P'89

Board of Trustees

Ursuline Academy lost a loyal friend and supporter with the passing of David Putnam on November 1, 2018. David served as chairman of the Ursuline Academy Board of Trustees for ten years, from 2003–2013. His years of service to the Academy began when his daughters Gretchen and Meredith, both of the Class of '89, were students. After their graduation, Mr. Putnam continued his involvement as Finance Committee chair and then as vice-chair of the board prior to becoming the third chair of the board in 2003.

Born in Boston in 1939, Putnam was educated at The Fessenden School, Philips Exeter Academy, Cornell University, and Boston University. He served his country in the U.S. Army Medical Corps, stationed in the United States and Germany, before completing his education at Boston University. David spent his entire adult life working in the investment industry. In 1965, he began work at the F.L. Putnam & Company investment brokerage firm in downtown Boston. In 1969, he founded Boston Security Counsellors, Inc. He also worked for Burgess & Leith Companies as a senior vice president and was president of The Advest Advantage Investment Trusts before resurrecting the F.L. Putnam name and becoming president of the F.L. Putnam Investment Management Company in 1984. During that time, he developed a methodology for socially responsible investing. He continued working for F.L. Putnam Investment Management Company in various capacities until his passing.

“David was a mentor, a colleague, and a friend ... It was an honor to have known him and a privilege to have worked with him. His presence is deeply missed and the memory of his smile will forever warm my heart.”

*—Margaret Reynolds '82, P'24
Chair, Board of Trustees*

Highly regarded for his integrity, business acumen, and prudence, David served as a trustee for many individuals throughout New England and New York and served on many boards, including that of Ursuline Academy. David was a true gentleman, thoughtful, kind, and generous. Throughout his life, his choices and actions reflected the Serviam motto. He enjoyed music, particularly classical, the way the wind would howl and stir up the surf during storms at the beach, and the antics of his three grandchildren. He loved Ursuline Academy and was often found cheering on the soccer team or in the audience at a Glee Club performance when his daughters were students. He was especially pleased to be able to attend Grandparents Day this past fall.

“David was a mentor, a colleague, and a friend,” said Margaret Reynolds '82, P'24, current chair of Ursuline's board of trustees. “It was an honor to have known him and a privilege to have worked with him. His presence is deeply missed and the memory of his smile will forever warm my heart.”

Putnam leaves his wife of 51 years, Yvette (Moreau) of Newton Centre, MA; his daughters Gretchen (Melissa Dimond) of Gloucester, MA, and Meredith (Mark Lepper) of Wellesley, MA; and grandchildren Ari, Ben, and Dana '23. He is also survived by two sisters, Margaret Gail Barney of Old Orchard Beach, ME and Patricia Putnam of Lincolnville, ME, and a brother, John Stephen Putnam of Tarpon Springs, FL.

"I think one of the great strengths of Ursuline is the way it allows each girl to develop her skills and to be ambitious in her own way, according to her own unique vocation. We are, each of us, called, and I think Ursuline helps each girl to hear that calling. That is real "girl power," and Ursuline is empowering in a way that does not measure "empowerment" strictly by the job titles of its alumnae."

Annual Fund 2017-18

Gifts to the Annual Fund sustain the foundation of excellence that allows Ursuline Academy to flourish. As the school's second largest source of income after tuition, the Annual Fund provides a core source of funding that supports Ursuline's needs, enabling the Academy to offer programs and initiatives that benefit the entire community. It gives the administration the flexibility to meet opportunities for our students and faculty. We are deeply grateful to all of our supporters who made Ursuline a philanthropic priority between July 1, 2017 and June 30, 2018.

REALIZE THE POSSIBILITIES CAMPAIGN FOR THE ATHLETIC & CONVOCATION CENTER

Gifts of all sizes helped to bring The Reynolds Family Athletic & Convocation Center from a dream to a reality. With the building now open and a vibrant campus asset, future fundraising will help pay down the debt incurred to finance the construction. This report reflects gifts or pledge payments made between July 1, 2017 and June 30, 2018.

REYNOLDS CENTER STONEWORK STILL AVAILABLE

Purchasing a piece of commemorative stonework is a wonderful way to honor a loved one or deliver a message of congratulations. Bricks, pavers, and bluestone seats are still available for purchase; pavers (2' x 3') and seats (18" x 4') have limited quantities available.

For more information or to place an order, visit:

UrsulineAcademy.net/pavetheway

Please order by April 1, 2019 for installation in the spring of 2019.

At right: Luisa Claeyts Tosi '63 and her husband, Richard, relax next to their paver on a visit back to campus.

Gifts In Honor Of

Ursuline Academy wishes to thank all the alumnae donors who made gifts in honor of a teacher, their class, or their reunion year. See what magic makes possible

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2017 • THE LANTANA, RANDOLPH

Thank you to everyone who sponsored the event, placed an ad, made a contribution to a basket, purchased tickets, or gave their time or talents to ensure the success of the 2017 Brescia Ball. All cash donations received supported Scholarship Assistance funds or fulfilled a Wish List request from faculty.

We extend our sincere appreciation to Cramer Production Company of Norwood and Greg Martin P'18 for their production of the video celebrating our honorees, as well as for the staging, lighting, and audio/visual support of the event.

26th Annual Fore the Girls! Golf Tournament

Tuesday, May 29, 2018 | Blue Hill Country Club, Canton, MA

The 26th annual Fore the Girls! Golf Tournament was held for the first time at the pristine Blue Hill Country Club, Canton, on what was a glorious sunny day. A huge “thank you” goes out to all of our sponsors, committee members, and volunteers for making this day in support of the Ursuline Athletic program possible.

ALUMNAE DIRECTORY

UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION

This spring, we will be introducing an alumnae directory created by you and for you to use as a searchable database to reconnect with Ursuline classmates and other alumnae.

Visit UrsulineAcademy.net/ProfileUpdate and follow the simple instructions so that the directory may be as up to date as possible.
